It was not the best game of ball played here this season, and in the earlier stages took on a wearlsome, draggy hue, but it was exciting enough toward the close to satisfy any one. Eckman was doing the umpiring, and was getting along famously until the sixth inning. Then he missed one on I Cowan, calling a strike which was obviously way off. Scrap took the hint from the crowd, which howled, and the result was that he was fined and put out of the game. What he said is not known, but it was sufficient to arouse the ire of the umpire.

to find a volunteer brave enough to don the mask. Cy Pierce offered to be the Bollivar. He worked but two innings, and it was not his fault that the score was tied.

In fact, Cy made it possible for the game to be won. He started off in fact, cy made it possible for the locals and he scored the winning run for the Coits, long after many thought it impossible for the locals to wiz. All in all, it was Pierce's day, and he made the most of it. If Shaughnessy ever had a chance to win he had it yesterday, for it was logically the weekest ieam which Richmone has had on the diamond in many moons, and adde to it all is the fact that Martin's sore finger is not well and is giving him considerable trouble.

Sun Helped Rosnoke.

Really and truly the winning run is directly attributable to the sun. Baker's error gave Shaughnessy alife, and he took advantage of Pierce, stealing second. Richmond outhit Roanoke almost two to one, getting eleven safe swats off of Effred to six off of Verbout. Taken all around, the locals played the best ball, and it would have been the hardest kind of hard luck had those hardest kind of hard luck had those the element of the opening frame. London, June 8.—Billy Papke, the American middleweight, to-night took the measure of Jim Sullivan, the middleweight champion of England, in nine rounds of fast and furious fighting. Again it was the fighter against the boxer, and the fighter against the case.

The contest was for the middleweight championship of the world, a pursa of $10,000, and a side bet It was able to take unlimited punishment. fecting the siamina of Papke, who was able to take unlimited punishment. Towards the close of the ninth round Papke landed a savage uppercut which put Sullivan to the floor. He took a count of five, and when the bell rang, staggered blindly to his corner. When the call for the tenth round sounded, Sullivan was unable to stand up, and Corri awarded the fight to the American amid great applause.
